

Fun Facts

- Too Sleepy To Zip was an orphan. A nurse mare named Ernistine Will Buck helped raise him. His barn name was given in her honor-his friends all call him Ernie!
- PulseVet's VersaTron generates a 'shock wave' which is actually a high energy sound wave, similar to thunder caused by lightning or the sound of a gunshot or explosion. It has over a decade of published scientific research and is covered by equine insurance!
- Too Sleepy To Zip has produced World Champions in 3 breeds-AQHA, APHA, APHC. He is currently on ALL 3 LEADING SIREs list for producing the MOST WINNERS!
- Did you know that not all shock wave is the same? Radial pressure is not "TRUE" shock wave. Understand the differences before making a choice that will affect your horse's health. Ask for PulseVet's VersaTron!
- Ernie has had the same blacksmith for 16 years. Craig Harrison is talented, dedicated, and admired for his advanced skill level and years of experience working with the top equine athletes throughout the United States.
- PulseVet shock wave is a very effective, proven, non-invasive treatment choice for sore backs. Did you know it is also great for heel pain and to help manage horses with navicular syndrome?
- Too Sleepy To Zip's dam won the first ever Tom Powers Futurity in 1981. Her name was Too Sleepy Too. Did you know Too Sleepy To Zip has produced World Champions in Western Pleasure AND in Hunt Seat?
- PulseVet can help your dog fight arthritis and eliminate the need for pharmaceuticals and the undesired side effects in just one to three treatments. Learn more at pulsevet.com.
- BSB QUARTER HORSES is the ONLY FARM to earn the distinguished honor of having 4 horses in the NSBA HALL OF FAME breeding category. Ernie stands at BSB Quarter Horses in Sturgis, MI.

"We consider ourselves extremely fortunate, spending our lives caring for and raising many of the best horses in the industry. We treat your great mares like family here and sincerely appreciate your trust in us. We believe Too Sleepy To Zip is our "once in a lifetime horse." His many accomplishments still take our breath away. He still makes the hair on our arms stand up, and we are still in awe of him, and will be forever grateful to share our lives with this very special horse we call Ernie. He has helped make our dreams come true. We always say
THE PROOF IS IN THE KIDS!"
